ADDITIONAL SKILLS AND INFORMATION

Languages:

I am fluent in English and Russian and have been learning Chinese for over 7 years now. I have participated several times in a Mandarin speaking competition and have performed on special occasion during my time at the Glasgow Chinese School.

Hobbies and Interests:

During my spare time, I continue to learn Chinese and have recently picked up German as another language. I regularly attend the gym and go on weekly swimming sessions with my friends to maintain myself in good health.

I take interest in sciences and technology. I am subscribed to several non-fiction magazines such National Geographic, New Scientist, etc. On occasion, I build my own DIY projects that involve some interesting aspects of problem solving.

I like spending time with my friends and socialising with people.

Some of my other hobbies include photography, graphic design and reading.
